Wishing you could be here?

Join us for
Fly Fishing Workshops at the AIC

Day Workshop
Saturday, May 9, 9:00 am
At this introductory workshop, you will be introduced to the art and science of fly fishing. Instruction will focus on the basics of fly casting, fly fishing insects, gear and technique. $25 registration fee.

To Register:
Contact us at 518.582.2000 or aic@esf.edu. Pre-registration required.

Weekend Retreat
Friday, Sept 18 - Sunday, Sept 20
This is a one-of-a-kind getaway in the heart of the Adirondacks! Instruction will be both in the classroom and out on the water, with fishing excursions planned nearby. $199 per person, includes onsite lodging and meals for the weekend.

Learn and practice the art of fly casting and fly fishing, while exploring the natural science underpinning the sport!

Receive one-on-one guidance from Rick Kovacs, Licensed Adirondack Fly Fishing Guide and owner of Packbasket Adventures Lodge and Guide Service in Wanakena, NY.

Beginners welcome! No experience is necessary, nor is gear which will be available for use.

Special Offer:
Attend both workshops and receive a reduced price of $175 for the Weekend Retreat!

ESF
State University of New York
College of Environmental Science and Forests

The Adirondack Interpretive Center (AIC) is the public outreach facility at SUNY-ESF’s Newcomb Campus.
5922 State Route 28N, Newcomb NY   www.esf.edu/aic