

Pam Campbell

Pam Campbell, Senior Associate, joined Cook+Fox Architects in July 2003. Pam recently served as the Project Manager for the Stephen Sondheim Theater, working from conceptual design through to construction management to transform the 1918 Henry Miller's Theater into a state-of-the-art performing arts venue slated for LEED-Gold certification. Charged with coordinating the architectural component of the LEED certification requirements and New York State Green Building Tax Credit application, she was an integral member of the team responsible for the LEED-Platinum certified Bank of America Tower at One Bryant Park. As Project Manager for the Live Work Home, a winning proposal of Syracuse University's "From the Ground Up" affordable green housing competition in 2008, Pam saw the project through its recent completion in the winter of 2010.

Pam has worked in New York, in the UK, and in Germany at Behnisch, Behnisch & Partners. She has a Bachelor's degree in Architecture from the Mackintosh School of Architecture in Glasgow, Scotland, and a Master's degree in architecture from MIT in Cambridge, MA, where she was awarded an AIA Student Fellowship and an AIA Medal for Top Graduating M.Arch Student.
