

SUNY-ESF JOACHIM CENTER – 12TH ANNUAL FORUM

Opportunities for Forest Resources, Forest Products and Allied Industries in a Potentially Carbon and Non-Renewable Energy Constrained World

JUNE 4-5, 2007 FORUM -- MILLENNIUM UN PLAZA HOTEL, NYC

The Forum is designed to support the forest products and related industries in addressing the challenges posed by potentially emerging carbon and non renewable energy constraints. Specifically we will focus on industry efforts to foresee possibilities and align practices, policies, and products that will enable success within these constraints. Participants in this forum are from industry, government, non-governmental organizations, financial and market sectors, academia and the general public.
