

STEM Forum 2005: Engaging Students in Science and Engineering Education and Careers *Through K-12, College/University and Business Collaboration

Thursday, December 8, 2005

St. Marie Among the Iroquois Living History Museum, Liverpool, NY

Co-Sponsors

Many thanks to each of the following co-sponsors for their endorsement of the timelines and importance of this program's agenda – and for their financial support. We are grateful to be recipients of a SUNY Conversation in the Disciplines grant.

Technology Alliance of Central New York / www.tacny.org

Blasland, Bouck & Lee, Inc. / www.bbl-inc.com/bblinc

Central New York Biotechnology Research Center / www.upstate.edu/biocenter

Central New York Education Consortium

Le Moyne College / www.lemoyne.edu

Manufacturers Association of Central New York / www.macny.org

Milton J. Rubenstein Museum of Science & Technology / www.most.org

Monroe Community College / www.monroecc.edu

New York Indoor Environmental Quality Center, Inc. / www.nyieq.com

O'Brien & Gere / www.obg.com

Science Teachers Association of New York State (Central Section) / www.stanys.org

Syracuse City School District / www.astihosted.com/scsddcp/DesktopDefault.aspx

This program is supported, in part, by a SUNY Conversations in the Disciplines grant.