

Recommended Writing and Oral Communication Support for SUNY-ESF International Graduate Students

Phase 1: Fall Semester, Year 1

- Take English Language Assessment Exam administered by Syracuse University
Contact: Margo Sampson, Language Coordinator masampso@syr.edu or
- Enroll in an ESL course at S.U., depending on placement exam results:
 - ENL 201 Intermediate English for Non-Native Speakers of English
 - ENL 202: Intermediate English for Non-Native Speakers of English
 - ENL 203: Speaking and Listening for Non-Native Speakers of English
 - ENL 207: Advanced Integrated Skills for Non-Native Speakers of English

Contact: Emily Quackenbush, Coordinator of International Education, oe@esf.edu

Phase 2: Spring Semester, Year 1

- Enroll in EWP 597, Graduate Scholarly Writing

Contact: Kurt Stavenhagen, Writing Program Director, wkstaven@syr.edu

Phase 3: Proposal, Thesis, Dissertation Writing

- Sign up for One-on-one tutoring support. $300 for up to 7 hours of tutoring in the ESF Writing center. Must be funded by Department.

Tutor: Maryanne Patulski, ESOL Certified, mpatulsk@syr.edu

Contact: Kurt Stavenhagen, Writing Program Director, wkstaven@syr.edu

Writing Center Tutoring at Syracuse University

Tutoring is available for ESF Graduate Students at SU's Writing Center, 101 Huntington Beard Crouse (HBC).

To make an appointment contact:
<http://wc.syr.edu/>

Recommended Course for Oral Communication Skills

EWP 620: Advanced Public Presentation Skills

Contact: Kurt Stavenhagen, Writing Program Director, wkstaven@syr.edu

International and ESL Conversation Group

Please join the Writing Program Intern, Diana Jagde, for an informal discussion of cultural, societal, and/or academic topics to improve English language skills in 19 Moon

Library on Tuesday from 2:00 to 3:00pm

Contact: Diana Jadge at djadge@syr.edu