Academic Governance Bylaws
State University of New York
College of Environmental Science and Forestry

Preamble

It is the purpose of these by-laws to set forth the responsibilities of the Academic Governance of the State University of New York College of Environmental Science and Forestry and to establish organization and procedures necessary for the effective performance of such responsibilities and for the orderly transaction of College business.

These by-laws are consistent with policies adopted by the State University Board of Trustees for the organization and governance of the University as set forth in Policies of the Board of Trustees, State University of New York, 1973.

I. Organization

To meet these responsibilities, the Membership shall organize itself for the orderly transaction of business; meet regularly to discuss matters of College interest; review existing College policies and programs and cooperate in carrying them out; recommend to the President, or to other appropriate individuals or bodies, proposed new policies and programs and/or revisions to existing policies and programs; and assist in the enhancement and development of the College and its programs. The Academic Governance Standing Rules are the operating procedures under which this body functions.

A. Membership

1. Faculty.
   The Faculty of the State University of New York College of Environmental Science and Forestry shall be composed of the Chancellor of State University and the President of the College; members of the College having academic rank, senior research associates, research associates, and research assistants. These Faculty members shall be members of Academic Governance.

2. Staff Representatives.
   Thirty (30) members of the non-Faculty professional staff who are elected through a College-wide electoral process shall be members of Academic Governance. Those non-Faculty professional staff in Unclassified Service are eligible to be elected.

3. Student Representatives.
   Sixteen (16) student representatives, eight (8) each representing the Graduate Student Association and the Undergraduate Student Association shall be members of Academic Governance.

B. Voting Membership

All Members as defined in Section A are eligible to vote.

C. Ex-Officio Officers

1. Chair.
   The President of the College shall be Chair of the Membership. The President’s designee shall act in the absence of the President. The Chair is empowered to call meetings of the Membership and to report to the Membership (with agenda priority) at all meetings. The President or their designee is a member of every standing committee. The President shall receive for action all recommendations about the instructional, research, and service programs of the College, and shall report their disposition to the Membership.

2. Past Executive Chair.
   The immediate Past Executive Chair will serve on the Executive Committee for one year immediately following their last term as chair. In the event that the Executive Chair is unable to serve for more than one semester, the Past Executive Chair will serve as Acting Executive Chair until a special election can be held but not more than two semesters. The Past Executive Chair shall be a voting member of the Executive Committee.
D. Elected Officers

1. Executive Chair.
   Biennially, in even-numbered years, the Membership shall elect one of its members to serve as Executive Chair who must be a member of the voting Membership.
