

Special Topics Courses

At the beginning of each academic year, the Dean of Instruction and Graduate Studies, will send a memorandum to the Faculty responsible for "special topics" courses that have been taught at least three times. Any course offered three times as a "special topics" course (XXX x96) must be proposed and approved as a new course before it can be offered again.

[Approved by the Committee on Instruction: November 1997]

Special Topics Courses at ESF [as of Fall 2006]

APM 696 Special Topics in Quantitative Methods
BTC 296. Topics in Biotechnology
BTC 496. Topics in Biotechnology
CLL 296. Special Topics in Composition, Library and Literature
CLL 496. Special Topics in Composition, Literature, and Library Studies
EFB 296. Special Topics in Environmental and Forest Biology
EFB 496. Topics in Environmental and Forest Biology
EFB 796. Topics in Environmental and Forest Biology
ENS 596. Special Topics in Environmental Science
ENS 696. Special Topics in Environmental Science and Policy
ENS 796. Advanced Topics in Environmental Science and Policy
ERE 296. Special Topics in Engineering
ERE 496. Special Topics
ERE 596. Special Topics
ERE 796. Advanced Topics
EST 296. Special Topics in Environmental Studies
EST 496. Special Topics in Environmental Studies
FCH 496. Special Problems in Chemistry
FCH 796. Special Topics in Chemistry
FOR 296. Special Topics in Resource Management/Forestry
FOR 496. Special Topics in Resource Management/Forestry
FOR 796. Special Topics in Forest Resources Management
LSA 496. Special Topics in Landscape Architecture
LSA 596. Special Topics in Landscape Architecture
LSA 696. Special Topics in Landscape Architecture
LSA 796. Special Topics in Landscape Architecture
PSE 496. Special Topics