

Title IX (Sexual Violence) Resource Card

Resource for Faculty, Staff and Students

Title IX could mean:

Sex discrimination, sexual harassment, sexual violence (sexual assault, rape, sexual coercion, domestic/dating violence, stalking)

If you have experienced any of the above:

- Are you safe?
- You can seek medical help.
- You can seek emotional help and support.

Choose the options best for you:

- Speak confidentially to a professional counselor.
- Submit an anonymous report.
 - www.esf.edu/ide/bias.htm

- Report to law enforcement:
 - University Police Department
 - Syracuse (City) Police Department
 - N.Y. State Police Hotline
- Report to the Title IX coordinator or a deputy Title IX coordinator to start a College process.

What to know:

- It's not your fault.
- You are in control.
- Many resources are available to you.
- You have the right to choose whom and what to tell and when.
- If you report, you'll be taken seriously and treated with dignity and respect.
www.esf.edu/administration/titleix/

Reports to any on- or off-campus confidential resource are not shared with the College in any personally identifiable way and will not be considered a report made to the College. The College will not be in a position to take action as a result of your reporting only to a confidential resource.

Confidential On- and Off-Campus Resources

- Counseling Services Office, 110A Bray Hall 315-470-4716
- Chaplains at Syracuse University's Hendricks Chapel 315-443-2901
- Vera House, 723 James Street, general assistance 315-425-0818, 24-hour crisis hotline 315-468-3260

Healthcare Resources (Note: Any information shared may be revealed to the insurance policyholder.)

- ESF Health Services at Crouse Medical Practice, 739 Irving Ave., Suite 300, 315-766-1628
- Crouse Hospital, 736 Irving Avenue, general assistance 315-470-7111, Emergency Room 315-470-7411
- Upstate Hospital, 750 E. Adams Street, general assistance 315-464-5540 Emergency Room 315-464-5611
- St. Joseph's Hospital, 301 Prospect Avenue, general assistance 315-448-5111 Emergency Room 315-448-5101

These resources can provide information to you about services that may be available (such as counseling, medical services, other interim measures or accommodations, etc.). These resources may even be able to help you decide whether you want to disclose this information to me or anyone at the College.

Who needs to report to Title IX? Are you a “Responsible Employee”?

Students may approach employees with an alleged Title IX matter. All employees at ESF are considered to be a “responsible employee”. The Office for Civil Rights considers a “responsible employee” one who a student could reasonably believe has the authority or duty to report. Therefore, the “responsible employee” means every employee at ESF. The “responsible employee” must report the incident to the Title IX Coordinator or a Deputy Title IX Coordinator.

Exceptions—An employee who operates under professional confidentiality and is therefore considered a confidential resource. Contact the Title IX coordinator, a deputy Title IX coordinator or your supervisor if you are unsure on whether to report or not.

What to do if someone reports to you:

Let them know that you are glad that they came to talk to you and offer resources. Before they provide you with any information, make sure they understand your role.

- 1) If safety is an immediate concern, call 911 or ESF University Police. If they need medical attention, you can help them secure assistance from Counseling Services or a local hospital.
- 2) Let them know you have an obligation to report the information to the Title IX Coordinator or Deputy Title IX Coordinator.
- 3) Provide them with the information for on and off campus private and confidential resources.
- 4) Cut this card along the dotted line. Keep this half and give them the other half.
- 5) Don't forget to report to the Title IX coordinator or a deputy Title IX coordinator.

Private On-Campus Resources

Title IX Coordinator

Amy McLaughlin, Title IX coordinator and Affirmative Action officer
Office of Inclusion, Diversity and Equity
221 Baker Lab, (315) 565-3012
aimclaug@esf.edu or titleix@esf.edu

Deputy Title IX Coordinators

Anne Lombard, dean of Student Affairs
Mary Triano, senior assistant dean Student Affairs, 110 Bray Hall,
(315) 470-6660, studenthelp@esf.edu

ESF University Police

19 Bray Hall, (315) 470-6667

Do not include details in a report made via email

Other Off-campus Resources

- Syracuse City Police Department, Abused Person Unit, 315-435-3016
- New York State Police 24-hour hotline to report sexual assault on a N.Y. campus 1-844-845-7269
- SUNY Sexual Assault & Violence Response (SAVR) Resources
 - suny.edu/violence-response
 - www.esf.edu/administration/titleix

The Capptivation app houses a database of resources including specific campus information on assault reporting processes, counseling and health services. Available in the App Store and Play Store.