

This is an important message from SUNY Upstate Medical University

University Police would like to make you aware of a suspicious incident that occurred on Monday, November 18, 2019 at approximately 12:37pm in classroom 2243 of the New Academic Building.

Students reported receiving a suspicious telephone call made to a device located within in the classroom by an anonymous caller. During conversation, the anonymous caller made an alarming threat toward the students within the classroom.

Our investigation revealed that the threat made by the anonymous caller lacked credibility in various aspects and appears to be a prank call. However, we are continuing our investigations to identify the involved individual(s) and hold them accountable for their actions.

We ask that everyone be vigilant of suspicious people or threats made on our campus. If anyone has information regarding this incident or others, please contact the University Police Department at (315) 464-4000.

The safety and security of our staff and students is of primary importance to us. To that end, we, YOUR University Police Department, provide personal safety escorts 24/7.

If you ever feel nervous, or unsure of your safety for any reason, a personal safety escort is always a phone call away! Staff and students should never hesitate to request an escort for any reason at any hours of the day.

You can reach the University Police for an escort 24/7 by calling: (315) 464-4000.

We, the New York State University Police at Upstate, are your department and we are here to serve you. Please help us do that by sharing any and all information regarding any issue involving safety and security of any kind. Your quick report may help prevent others from becoming victims.
