

Historic Preservation and Cultural Landscapes

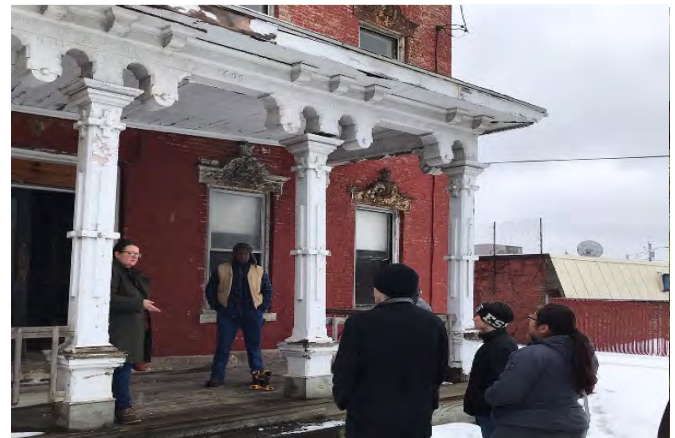

LSA 581 Spring 2021

Learn practices for working with historic resources in design and planning

History of historic preservation - Federal, state and local preservation programs

Historic resource surveys - Determining historical significance

Designing with historic places with a focus on applications to cultural landscapes

Top: The Sylvester historic rehabilitation, Syracuse

Bottom: Landscape rehabilitation, Gettysburg National Cemetery

Top: Catherine Murray House (demolished 2020), Syracuse

Tree replanting, Governor's Island National Monument

LSA 581 is a 3 credit course that meets T/TH, 9:30-10:50. COVID 19 Hybrid Instruction: The class will meet virtually on Blackboard (synchronous), but several field trips to historic sites in Syracuse will be held in-person, conditions permitting.

For additional information including a prior syllabus, go to <http://www.esf.edu/cclp/opportunities.htm>

Instructor: John Auwaerter, Co-Director, ESF Center for Cultural Landscape Preservation
(315) 470-6788, jeauwaer@esf.edu