Summer Field Courses
at ESF Ranger School at Wanakena

Wildlife Techniques
(3 credit hours)
June 27th – July 3rd

Dr. Amanda Cheeseman
Theodore Roosevelt Postdoctoral Scholar
ESF

A field-based exploration of the theory and application of common field techniques for monitoring wildlife populations.

Topics:

• Ethical care and use of wildlife in field research
  • Wildlife capture and handling
    • Radio-telemetry
• Mammal identification by tracks, hair, camera traps
  • Habitat suitability assessment
• Population monitoring techniques
  • Age determination