

Graduate Student Program of Study: Master of Forestry

Student:

Date:

Department:

A. Coursework

1. Required Courses: The following listed courses are considered essential for this student's program and represent appropriate coverage of the four study areas (Forest Ecology and Biology, Measurement of Forest Resources, Management of Forest Resources, Forest Resources Policy & Administration) required by the Society of American Foresters:

Undergraduate Required Core:

Course Number	Course Title	Requirement Met	Credits
FOR 304	Adirondack Field Studies
ESF 300	Introduction to Geospatial Information Technologies
EFB 336	Dendrology

Graduate Required Core:

Course Number	Course Title	Requirement Met	Credits
FOR 522	Forest Mensuration
FOR 524	Forest Biometrics
FOR 532	Forest Ecology
FOR 533	Managerial Economics for Environmental Professionals
FOR 534	Silvicultural Practice
FOR 545	Introduction to Soils
FOR 570	Forest Management Decision Making and Planning
FOR 573	Forest Operations
FOR 665	Natural Resources Policy
FOR 689	Natural Resources Law and Policy

Masters Study Integration (minimum of 6 graduate credits)

Course Number	Course Title	Requirement Met	Credit
FOR 690	Integrated Resources Management
FOR 898	Graduate Internship

Subtotal

Total Number of Graduate Credits (minimum of 37 graduate credits)

2. Supplemental Courses: The following listed courses will supplement the student’s body of knowledge.

Course Number	Course Title	Credits

Subtotal:

Total Credits:

B. Communication Skills

- 1. Technical Writing complete
- 2. Library Usage complete

C. Target for degree completion:

Accepted by:

Major Professor

Student

Steering Committee Member

Department Chair or Graduate Coordinator

Steering Committee Member

For non-ESF faculty committee appointments, please include the full name, affiliation, and EMAIL of the appointee.

cc: Department Chair, Major Professor, Dean of Instruction and Graduate Studies, Student, Registrar

CRT _____

Revised: 10/5/22