

Center for Native Peoples and the Environment

“Where We Stand”

Please join us as ESF President Wheeler announces a new protocol recognizing the College’s relationship with Indigenous Peoples and their territories.

Wednesday, November 18
11 a.m., Gateway Center Concourse

Speakers

President Quentin Wheeler

Dr. Robin Kimmerer, director, and Neil Patterson, assistant director, of the ESF Center for Native Peoples and the Environment

Margaret Foley, president of the Undergraduate Student Association

The event will be followed by a workshop, “Envisioning Indigenous Alliances.”
The workshop is a forum for discussing environmental alliances between ESF and Indigenous Peoples.

12:15 p.m., Alumni (Nifkin) Lounge

All are invited to come share ideas.