Proceedings of the 1998 Northeastern Recreation Research Symposium

Symposium Topics:

Public Sector Recreation Administration & Management

Education Issues in Recreation

Policy Issues: Partnerships and Collaborations

Contemporary Issues in Recreation

Heritage and Cultural Tourism

Environmental Concerns in Recreation

Outdoor Recreation Management

Water Based Recreation and Management

Recreation and Tourism Trends in the Northeast

Recreation Modeling

Roundtables, Management Sessions, and Poster Presentations

Complete List
Public Sector Recreation Administration & Management

- Conserving Open Space in New York State
  Robert W. Reinhardt and Shaun Keeler

- Recreational, Scenic, and Existence Values in Conservation Easements Held by Private Land Trusts in the Northeast
  Steven Bick and Harry L Haney, Jr.
Education Issues in Recreation

- Exploring the Virtual World of Recreation: Distance Learning on the Internet

  Robert S. Bristow

- The Effects of Environmental Coursework on Student Perceptions of the Environment

  Alan D. Bright

- Motivation to Volunteer at Shaver’s Creek Environmental Center

  Thomas D. Wickham and Alan Graefe

- Student Willingness to Pay More for a Tourism Experience which Supports Environmental Conservation

  Wendy Garpow, Mindy Habicht and Rob Robertson
Policy Issues: Partnerships and Collaborations

- Enhancing Tourism Development Through Partnerships

  Norman K. Bender

- An Examination of Effectiveness in the Collaborative Management of Natural Resources

  Michael A. Schuett, Steven W. Selin and Deborah S. Carr

- Archaeology at Aldrichville: An Education and Recreation Partnership

  David M. Lacy, Sheila Charles, Debra Gardner-Baasch and Michael Barbieri

- Philanthropy and Collaborative Planning: a Case Study

  Jefferson D. Armistead
Contemporary Issues in Recreation

A Comparison of Wilderness Privacy Within Two New York State Wilderness Environments

Cathy L Fuller and Chad P. Dawson

Recreation Specialization, Amateur/Professional Leisure, and Level of Development: Applying Outdoor Recreation and Sport Concepts to Quiltmakers

Sharon L. Todd

A Rail Structure Disposition Process for Pennsylvania’s Rail-Trails

Andrew J. Mowen, Gary L Gittings and Alan R. Graefe

Snowmobilers’ Perceptions of Danger and Their Relationship to Fatal Accidents

Joel A Lynch and Charles M. Nelson
Heritage and Cultural Tourism

🌟 Museums and Cultural Institutions in Michigan: a Foundation for Heritage Tourism

_Gail A. Vander Stoep_

🌟 The Importance of History in Recreation Research

_Karl Roenke_
Environmental Concerns in Recreation

- Size of Place of Residence and Encounters With the Adverse Consequences of and Support for Commercial/Industrial Development

  Robert A. Robertson and Rabel J. Burdge

- A Study of Information Search by Visitors to the Blue Ridge Parkway

  Jim Rogers and Roy Ramthun

- The Utility of a Uses and Gratifications Approach to Assess the Information Needs of Forest Visitors: An Activity—Based Market Segmentation Test

  James D. Absher

- Information Use in the Trip Planning Process: a Qualitative Analysis of Backpackers

  Roy Ramthun

- The Association of Outdoor Recreation and Environmental Behaviors

  Gene L. Theodori, A.E. Luloff and Fern K. Willits
Outdoor Recreation Management

- Pricing Public-Sector Recreation: a Functionalist Perspective

  _Thomas A. More_

- An Experiment in Progress -- Permitting Pets in Selected Florida State Park Campgrounds

  _Andrew Holdnak and Stephen M. Holland_

- Applying Recreation Specialization, Willingness to Pay and Willingness to Accept to New York State Anglers

  _Cheng-Ping Wang and Chad P. Dawson_

- The Human Dimensions of the Wilderness Experience in the High Peaks Wilderness Area

  _Peter Newman and Chad P. Dawson_

- Do Resource Managers Differ from the Public in Their Preferences for Management Alternatives?

  _Donald F. Dennis_

- The Role of Ancillary Skills in Wildland Recreation Activity Participation

  _Robert D. Bixler and Beverly Morris_

- The 1996 Fishing, Hunting, and Wildlife-Associated Recreation Survey--Results and Implications

  _Allan Marsinko, Richard Aiken and John Dwyer_

- Relationship Between Visitor Knowledge of “Leave No Trace” Minimum-Impact
Practices and Attitudes Toward Selected Management Actions

John J. Confer, Jr., James D. Absher, Alan R. Graefe, and Andrea Hille
Water Based Recreation and Management

Watercraft User Motivations, Perceptions of Problems, and Preferences for Management Actions: Comparisons Between Three Levels of Past Experience

Stephen Bowes and Chad P. Dawson

Recreational Use Assessment of the Pere Marquette Scenic River and Management Implications

Paul R. Johnson and Charles M. Nelson

Differences in Motivations for Different River Users and Potential Conflict

William Perry and David K. Loomis

Water-Based Recreationists’ Attitudes Regarding Customer Satisfaction: Differences Between Selected Market Segments

Robert C. Burns, Alan R. Graefe, James D. Absher, and John Titre
Recreation and Tourism Trends in the Northeast

Crowds at Special Events: An Examination of Perceived Crowding at a First Night® Event

Hans Vogelsong and Deborah Kerstetter

Volume Segmentation of Selected Recreation Activities in the Northeastern United States: 1982-1996

Rodney B. Warnick, Ph.D.

Beliefs About New Hampshire, Maine and Vermont with Regard to Selected Tourism Opportunities and Amenities

Alberto B. Manalo, Tracey Farrigan and Robert A. Robertson

1997 General Public Recreation Survey for Onondaga County Parks

Heidi Kortright and Miklos Gratzer

Kelly L. Finn and David K. Loomis

Recreation Participation and Scenic Value Assessments of Clearcuts

James F. Palmer

Incorporating Broad-Based Values into Natural Resource Decision-making: Conceptual and Measurement Challenges

Ronald J. Glass, Thomas H. Stevens and Thomas A. More
Roundtables, Management Sessions, and Poster Presentations

- Response to the Adirondack Windstorm of July 15, 1998 by the New York State Department of Environmental Conservation

  Wayne G Blanchard

- A Roundtable: The Student Internship-A Linkage to the Future of the Profession

  Steven W. Burr and Andy Holdnak

- Spiritual Values: Can They be Incorporated Into Forest Management and Planning?

  Laura M. Fredrickson and William Kerr

- Building Cardboard Boats, Teamwork, and a Sense of Community: An Innovative Outdoor Program

  Anita H. Magafas and Katharine A. Pawelko

- Trailing Indiana: Indiana State and Local Government Trails Planning

  Eric A. Myers

- Trailing Indiana: Mud, Manure and Money; a Dual Agency Effort in Dealing With Statewide Trail Issues

  Les Wadzinski
Public Sector Recreation Administration & Management

- Conserving Open Space in New York State

  Robert W. Reinhardt and Shaun Keeler

- Recreational, Scenic, and Existence Values in Conservation Easements Held by Private Land Trusts in the Northeast

  Steven Bick and Harry L Haney, Jr.

Education Issues in Recreation

- Exploring the Virtual World of Recreation: Distance Learning on the Internet

  Robert S. Bristow

- The Effects of Environmental Coursework on Student Perceptions of the Environment

  Alan D. Bright

- Motivation to Volunteer at Shaver’s Creek Environmental Center

  Thomas D. Wickham and Alan Graefe

- Student Willingness to Pay More for a Tourism Experience which Supports Environmental Conservation

  Wendy Garpow, Mindy Habicht and Rob Robertson
Policy Issues: Partnerships and Collaborations

- Enhancing Tourism Development Through Partnerships
  Norman K. Bender
- An Examination of Effectiveness in the Collaborative Management of Natural Resources
  Michael A. Schuett, Steven W. Selin and Deborah S. Carr
- Archaeology at Aldrichville: An Education and Recreation Partnership
  David M. Lacy, Sheila Charles, Debra Gardner-Baasch and Michael Barbieri
- Philanthropy and Collaborative Planning: a Case Study
  Jefferson D. Armistead

Contemporary Issues in Recreation

- A Comparison of Wilderness Privacy Within Two New York State Wilderness Environments
  Cathy L Fuller and Chad P. Dawson
- Recreation Specialization, Amateur/Professional Leisure, and Level of Development: Applying Outdoor Recreation and Sport Concepts to Quiltmakers
  Sharon L. Todd
- A Rail Structure Disposition Process for Pennsylvania’s Rail-Trails
  Andrew J. Mowen, Gary L Gittings and Alan R. Graefe
- Snowmobilers’ Perceptions of Danger and Their Relationship to Fatal Accidents
  Joel A Lynch and Charles M. Nelson

Heritage and Cultural Tourism
Museums and Cultural Institutions in Michigan: a Foundation for Heritage Tourism

Gail A. Vander Stoep

The Importance of History in Recreation Research

Karl Roenke

Environmental Concerns in Recreation

Size of Place of Residence and Encounters With the Adverse Consequences of and Support for Commercial/Industrial Development

Robert A. Robertson and Rabel J. Burdge

A Study of Information Search by Visitors to the Blue Ridge Parkway

Jim Rogers and Roy Ramthun

The Utility of a Uses and Gratifications Approach to Assess the Information Needs of Forest Visitors: An Activity—Based Market Segmentation Test

James D. Absher

Information Use in the Trip Planning Process: a Qualitative Analysis of Backpackers

Roy Ramthun

The Association of Outdoor Recreation and Environmental Behaviors

Gene L. Theodori, A.E. Luloff and Fern K. Willits

Outdoor Recreation Management

Pricing Public-Sector Recreation: a Functionalist Perspective
Thomas A. More

An Experiment in Progress -- Permitting Pets in Selected Florida State Park Campgrounds

Andrew Holdnak and Stephen M. Holland

Applying Recreation Specialization, Willingness to Pay and Willingness to Accept to New York State Anglers

Cheng-Ping Wang and Chad P. Dawson

The Human Dimensions of the Wilderness Experience in the High Peaks Wilderness Area

Peter Newman and Chad P. Dawson

Do Resource Managers Differ from the Public in Their Preferences for Management Alternatives?

Donald F. Dennis

The Role of Ancillary Skills in Wildland Recreation Activity Participation

Robert D. Bixler and Beverly Morris

The 1996 Fishing, Hunting, and Wildlife-Associated Recreation Survey--Results and Implications

Allan Marsinko, Richard Aiken and John Dwyer

Water Based Recreation and Management

Watercraft User Motivations, Perceptions of Problems, and Preferences for Management Actions: Comparisons Between Three Levels of Past Experience

Stephen Bowes and Chad P. Dawson

Recreational Use Assessment of the Pere Marquette Scenic River and Management Implications

Paul R. Johnson and Charles M. Nelson

Differences in Motivations for Different River Users and Potential Conflict

William Perry and David K. Loomis

Water-Based Recreationists’ Attitudes Regarding Customer Satisfaction: Differences Between Selected Market Segments

Robert C. Burns, Alan R. Graefe, James D. Absher, and John Titre

Recreation and Tourism Trends in the Northeast

Crowds at Special Events: An Examination of Perceived Crowding at a First Night® Event

Hans Vogelsong and Deborah Kerstetter

Volume Segmentation of Selected Recreation Activities in the Northeastern United States: 1982-1996

Rodney B. Warnick, Ph.D.

Beliefs About New Hampshire, Maine and Vermont with Regard to Selected Tourism Opportunities and Amenities

Alberto B. Manalo, Tracey Farrigan and Robert A. Robertson

1997 General Public Recreation Survey for Onondaga County Parks

Heidi Kortright and Miklos Gratzer

Recreation Modeling

Kelly L Finn and David K. Loomis

Recreation Participation and Scenic Value Assessments of Clearcuts

James F. Palmer

Incorporating Broad-Based Values into Natural Resource Decision-making: Conceptual and Measurement Challenges

Ronald J. Glass, Thomas H. Stevens and Thomas A. More
Roundtables, Management Sessions, and Poster Presentations

- Response to the Adirondack Windstorm of July 15, 1998 by the New York State Department of Environmental Conservation

  Wayne G Blanchard

- A Roundtable: The Student Internship-A Linkage to the Future of the Profession

  Steven W. Burr and Andy Holdnak

- Spiritual Values: Can They be Incorporated Into Forest Management and Planning?

  Laura M. Fredrickson and William Kerr

- Building Cardboard Boats, Teamwork, and a Sense of Community: An Innovative Outdoor Program

  Anita H. Magafas and Katharine A. Pawelko

- Trailing Indiana: Indiana State and Local Government Trails Planning

  Eric A. Myers

- Trailing Indiana: Mud, Manure and Money; a Dual Agency Effort in Dealing With Statewide Trail Issues

  Leś Wadzinski