Proceedings of the 2001 Northeastern Recreation Research Symposium

Symposium Topics:

Keynote Address

Crowding Issues in Resource Management

The Role of Information in Travel Planning Decisions

Demographic Trends in Outdoor Recreation Participation & Travel

Methodology in Outdoor Recreation Research I: Interventions

Leisure Motivations of Outdoor Recreationists

Resource Management & International Tourism Development

User Satisfaction in Outdoor Recreation

Environmental Knowledge, Concern, Behavior & Education

Leisure Constraints of Outdoor Recreationists

Urban Recreation & Development Issues

Economic Impacts & Non-economic Benefits of Tourism
Management Decision-making & Planning for Outdoor Recreation

Impacts of Wildlife Viewing

Methodology in Outdoor Recreation Research II: Instruments & Methods

Personal Relevance, Involvement & Loyalty in Outdoor Recreation

Gender Issues in Outdoor Recreation & Resource Management

Trails over Land & Water: Issues of Multiple Use & Conflict

Attachments to Places & Activities in Outdoor Recreation

Poster Session

Management Presentation

Roundtable Discussions

Complete List

2000  2001

Home
Keynote Address

Making research more relevant: Give it a try!

David W. Lime
Crowding Issues in Resource Management

- Balancing tradeoffs in the Denali Wilderness: An expanded approach to normative research using stated choice analysis.

  Steven R. Lawson and Robert Manning

- Coping, crowding and satisfaction: A study of Adirondack wilderness hikers.

  Andrew K. Johnson and Chad Dawson

- Perceived crowding at Boston Harbor Islands National Park Area.

  Megha Budruk, Robert E. Manning, William A. Valliere, and Benjamin Wang

- Transportation planning and social carrying capacity in the National Parks.

  William Valliere, Robert Manning, Megha Budruk, Steven Lawson, and Benjamin Wang
The Role of Information in Travel Planning Decisions

Assessing information needs and communication behaviors of National Forest summer visitors.

James D. Absher, Brijesh Thapa, and Alan R. Graefe

The commodification process of extreme sports: The diffusion of the X-Games by ESPN.

Chang Huh, Byoung Kwan Lee, and Euidong Yoo

Marketing National Parks: Oxymoron or opportunity?

Alan K. Hogenauer
Demographic Trends in Outdoor Recreation Participation & Travel

  Allan Marsinko and John Dwyer

  Rod Warnick

- Welcome center research: How valuable is secondary research?

  Lousia Meyer, Tara Patterson, Lori Pennington-Gray, Andrew Holdnak, and Brijesh Thapa
Methodology in Outdoor Recreation Research I: Interventions

- Unique programming: An examination of the benefits of a free choice program.

  Dorothy L. Schmalz, Deborah L. Kerstetter, and Harry C. Zinn

- Outdoor experiential-based training: Motivational and environmental influences affecting outcomes.

  Teresa (Birdie) High and Alan R. Graefe

- Use of experience sampling method to understand the wilderness experience.

  Lynn Anderson

- Encounters and the guided group trip: Going “on-the-scene” to examine the situational interpretation of encounters.

  Erin K. Sharpe
Leisure Motivations of Outdoor Recreationists

• Differences in SCUBA diver motivations based on level of development.

  Sharon L. Todd, Alan R. Graefe, and Walter Mann

• Skier motivations: Do they change over time?

  Erin White and Lori Pennington-Gray

  Rodney R. Zwick, Ron Glass, Kim Royar, and Tom Decker
Resource Management & International Tourism Development

 différences du niveau politique potentiel sur le tourisme international.

Young-Rae Kim, Chang Huh, and Seung Hyun Kim

Future of the Korea National Parks: A preliminary Delphi study of key experts.

Byung-kyu Lee and Wilbur F. LaPage
User Satisfaction in Outdoor Recreation

A preliminary analysis of Florida State Park satisfaction survey data.

Andrew Holdnak, Stephen Holland, and Erin Parks

Recreationists in the Columbia River Gorge National Scenic Area: A survey of user characteristics, behaviors, and attitudes.

Robert C. Burns and Alan R. Graefe

Visitor satisfactions: Backcountry and wilderness users in the White Mountain National Forest.

Chad P. Dawson, Rebecca Oreskes, Frederick Kacprzynski, and Tom More

Participants’ perceptions of the 1997-1998 Missouri State Parks Passport Program.

Yi-Jin Ye and Jaclyn Card
Environmental Knowledge, Concern, Behavior & Education

- An evaluation of Appalachian Trail hikers’ knowledge of minimum impact skills and practices.

  Peter Newman, Robert Manning, Jim Bacon, Alan Graefe, and Gerard Kyle

- Who cares and who acts? Different types of outdoor recreationists exhibit different levels of environmental concern and behavior.

  Mario F. Teisl and Kelly O’Brien

- Visitor behavior and resource impacts at Cadillac Mountain, Acadia National Park.

  Rex Turner and Wilbur LaPage
Leisure Constraints of Outdoor Recreationists

- The effects of perceived leisure constraints among Korean university students.

  Sae-Sook Oh, Sei-Yi Oh, and Linda L. Caldwell

- Exploration of the influence of self-efficacy on recreation participation levels of individuals with visual impairments who use dog guides.

  Laurlyn K. Harmon and Linda L. Caldwell
Urban Recreation & Development Issues

🌟 An integrative concept for visitor monitoring in a heavily used conservation area in the vicinity of a large city: The Danube Floodplains National Park, Vienna.

   Arne Arnberger, Christiane Brandenburg, and Andreas Muhar

🌟 Linkages in the use of recreation environments across the urban to ex-urban spectrum by urban residents.

   John F. Dwyer and Susan C. Barro

🌟 The role, use and benefits of natural recreation areas within and near residential subdivisions.

   Christine A. Vogt and Robert W. Marans
Economic Impacts & Non-economic Benefits of Tourism

- New York State’s 1999 agritourism business study.

  Diane Kuehn and Duncan Hilchey

- Rail-trails and special events: Community and economic benefits.

  Charles Nelson, Christine Vogt, Joel Lynch, and Daniel Stynes

- Private business perceptions of transportation issues and the Island Explorer Bus system at Acadia National Park, Maine.

  Rea Brennan, Marc Edwards, and John J. Daigle
Management Decision-making & Planning for Outdoor Recreation

[Integrating resource, social and managerial indicators of quality into carrying capacity decision making.]

Peter Newman, Robert Manning, and Bill Valliere

[Redefining roles of science in planning and management: Ecology as a planning and management tool.]

Greg Mason and Stephen Murphy
Impacts of Wildlife Viewing

Elk viewing in Pennsylvania: An evolving eco-tourism system.

Bruce E. Lord, Charles H. Strauss, and Michael J. Powell

Competing values: A case study of Pennsylvania’s elk herd as a tourism attraction.

Jeffrey A. Walsh and Leonard K. Long

Impacts of wildlife viewing at Dixville Notch Wildlife Viewing Area.

Judith K. Silverberg, Peter J. Pekins, and Robert A. Robertson
Methodology in Outdoor Recreation Research II: Instruments & Methods

- Effects of pretesting with the adventure recreation model instrument.

  Anderson Young, Lynn Anderson, and Dale Anderson

- Modeling nonlinear preferences.

  Donald F. Dennis
Personal Relevance, Involvement & Loyalty in Outdoor Recreation

Psychological commitment as a mediator of the relationship between involvement and loyalty.

Joohyun Lee and Alan Graefe
Gender Issues in Outdoor Recreation & Resource Management

▸ Older Chinese women immigrants and their leisure experiences: Before and after emigration to the United States.

    Ching-Hua Ho and Jaclyn A. Card

▸ Towards an understanding of gender differences with respect to whitewater rafting preferences.

    Duarte B. Morais, Traci Zillifro, and Susanne Dubrouillet
Trails over Land & Water: Issues of Multiple Use & Conflict

Use and user patterns among Michigan licensed Off-Highway Vehicles ownership types.

Joel A. Lynch and Charles M. Nelson

Recreation conflict of riparian landowners with personal watercraft and motorboat use along the New York’s Great Lakes.

Cheng-Ping Wang and Chad P. Dawson

User preferences for social conditions on the St. Croix International Waterway.

Jamie Hannon, John J. Daigle, and Cynthia Stacey

Security along the Appalachian Trail.

James J. Bacon, Robert E. Manning, Alan R. Graefe, Gerard Kyle, Robert D. Lee, Robert C. Burns, Rita Hennessy, and Robert Gray

Trails research: Where do we go from here?

Michael A. Schuett and Patricia Seiser
Attachments to Places & Activities in Outdoor Recreation

 Visitor meanings of place: Using computer content analysis to examine visitor meanings at three National Capitol sites.

 Wei-Li Jasmine Chen, Chad L. Pierskalla, Theresa L. Goldman, and David L. Larsen

 The importance of visitors’ knowledge of the cultural and natural history of the Adirondacks in influencing sense of place in the High Peaks Region.

 Laura Fredrickson

 Attachments to places and activities: The relationship of psychological constructs to customer satisfaction attributes.

 Thomas D. Wickham and Alan R. Graefe

 An exploration of human territoriality in forest recreation.

 Harry C. Zinn, Laurlyn K. Harmon, Brijesh Thapa, Deborah L. Kerstetter, and Alan R. Graefe

 Community attachment and resource harvesting in rural Denmark.

 Rodney R. Zwick and David Solan
Poster Session

- The political economy of wilderness designation in Nova Scotia.

  Glyn Bissix, Leah Levac, and Peter Horvath

  Robert S. Bristow and Steven Riberdy

- Park resources as an essential to urban societies.

  Kristin Dion, Doug Stefancik, Serena Hawkins, and Robert Bristow

- Parks and recreation employment status: Implications from a civil service perspective.

  Joel Frater and Arthur Graham

- Natural resources interpretation: The role of researchers – A new-old approach.

  Mark Gleason

- Mountain bike trail compaction relation to selected physical parameters.

  Jeff Hale and Rodney R. Zwick

- Internet & branding: A perfect match or a fatal attraction? Analysis of fifty states of the U.S. official tourism websites.

  Gyehee Lee, Liping A. Cai, Everette Mills, and Joseph T. O’Leary

- Job satisfaction among recreation practitioners.
Erin Parks and Andrew Holdnak

Extensity and intensity of grants usage in obtaining funding for recreation services and capital improvement projects among park and recreation agencies in the state of Michigan.

Jerry L. Ricciardo

Resident camp directors, spirituality, and wilderness.

Michael Rule and Edward Udd

Social groups preferences relation to motivations and ability levels of whitewater kayakers.

Seth Turner and Rod Zwick
Management Presentation

🌟 Human preferences for ecological units: Patterns of dispersed campsites within landtype associations on the Chippewa National Forest.

Lisa Whitcomb, Dennis Parker, Bob Carr, Paul Gobster, and Herb Schroeder
Roundtable Discussions

🌟 Creating recreation partnerships on private agricultural and forest land in the urban Northeast: A case study from the Great Meadows of the Connecticut River.

    Robert L. Ryan and Juliet Hansel

🌟 Applied research opportunities in developed campgrounds.

    Carl P. Wiedemann

🌟 Adapting the Recreation Opportunity Spectrum (ROS) for states lands planning.

    Susan Bulmer, Linda Henzel, Ann Mates, Matt Moore, and Thomas A. More

🌟 It’s time to put the C.A.R.T. before the H.O.R.S.E. or Putting Critical, Analytical, and Reflective Thinking before “Handyman” Oriented Recreation Student Education.

    David L. Jewell
Keynote Address

- Making research more relevant: Give it a try!

  David W. Lime

Crowding Issues in Resource Management

- Balancing tradeoffs in the Denali Wilderness: An expanded approach to normative research using stated choice analysis.

  Steven R. Lawson and Robert Manning

- Coping, crowding and satisfaction: A study of Adirondack wilderness hikers.

  Andrew K. Johnson and Chad Dawson

- Perceived crowding at Boston Harbor Islands National Park Area.

  Megha Budruk, Robert E. Manning, William A. Valliere, and Benjamin Wang

- Transportation planning and social carrying capacity in the National Parks.

  William Valliere, Robert Manning, Megha Budruk, Steven Lawson, and Benjamin Wang

The Role of Information in Travel Planning Decisions
Assessing information needs and communication behaviors of National Forest summer visitors.

James D. Absher, Brijesh Thapa, and Alan R. Graefe

The commodification process of extreme sports: The diffusion of the X-Games by ESPN.

Chang Huh, Byoung Kwan Lee, and Euidong Yoo

Marketing National Parks: Oxymoron or opportunity?

Alan K. Hogenauer

Demographic Trends in Outdoor Recreation Participation & Travel

Wildlife-associated recreation in the North Central Region: Participation patterns and management implications.

Allan Marsinko and John Dwyer

Rod Warnick

Welcome center research: How valuable is secondary research?

Lousia Meyer, Tara Patterson, Lori Pennington-Gray, Andrew Holdnak, and Brijesh Thapa

Methodology in Outdoor Recreation Research I: Interventions

Unique programming: An examination of the benefits of a free choice program.
Dorothy L. Schmalz, Deborah L. Kerstetter, and Harry C. Zinn

Outdoor experiential-based training: Motivational and environmental influences affecting outcomes.

Teresa (Birdie) High and Alan R. Graefe

Use of experience sampling method to understand the wilderness experience.

Lynn Anderson

Encounters and the guided group trip: Going “on-the-scene” to examine the situational interpretation of encounters.

Erin K. Sharpe

Leisure Motivations of Outdoor Recreationists

Differences in SCUBA diver motivations based on level of development.

Sharon L. Todd, Alan R. Graefe, and Walter Mann

Skier motivations: Do they change over time?

Erin White and Lori Pennington-Gray

Rodney R. Zwick, Ron Glass, Kim Royar, and Tom Decker

Resource Management & International Tourism Development

The impact of potential political security level on international tourism.
Young-Rae Kim, Chang Huh, and Seung Hyun Kim

Future of the Korea National Parks: A preliminary Delphi study of key experts.

Byung-kyu Lee and Wilbur F. LaPage

User Satisfaction in Outdoor Recreation

A preliminary analysis of Florida State Park satisfaction survey data.

Andrew Holdnak, Stephen Holland, and Erin Parks

Recreationists in the Columbia River Gorge National Scenic Area: A survey of user characteristics, behaviors, and attitudes.

Robert C. Burns and Alan R. Graefe

Visitor satisfactions: Backcountry and wilderness users in the White Mountain National Forest.

Chad P. Dawson, Rebecca Oreskes, Frederick Kacprzynski, and Tom More

Participants’ perceptions of the 1997-1998 Missouri State Parks Passport Program.

Yi-Jin Ye and Jaclyn Card

Environmental Knowledge, Concern, Behavior & Education

An evaluation of Appalachian Trail hikers’ knowledge of minimum impact skills and practices.

Peter Newman, Robert Manning, Jim Bacon, Alan Graefe, and Gerard Kyle

Who cares and who acts? Different types of outdoor recreationists exhibit different levels of environmental concern and behavior.
Mario F. Teisl and Kelly O'Brien

Visitor behavior and resource impacts at Cadillac Mountain, Acadia National Park.

Rex Turner and Wilbur LaPage

Leisure Constraints of Outdoor Recreationists

The effects of perceived leisure constraints among Korean university students.

Sae-Sook Oh, Sei-Yi Oh, and Linda L. Caldwell

Exploration of the influence of self-efficacy on recreation participation levels of individuals with visual impairments who use dog guides.

Laurlyn K. Harmon and Linda L. Caldwell

Urban Recreation & Development Issues

An integrative concept for visitor monitoring in a heavily used conservation area in the vicinity of a large city: The Danube Floodplains National Park, Vienna.

Arne Arnberger, Christiane Brandenburg, and Andreas Muhar

Linkages in the use of recreation environments across the urban to ex-urban spectrum by urban residents.

John F. Dwyer and Susan C. Barro

The role, use and benefits of natural recreation areas within and near residential subdivisions.

Christine A. Vogt and Robert W. Marans

Economic Impacts & Non-economic Benefits of Tourism
New York State’s 1999 agritourism business study.

Diane Kuehn and Duncan Hilchey

Rail-trails and special events: Community and economic benefits.

Charles Nelson, Christine Vogt, Joel Lynch, and Daniel Stynes

Private business perceptions of transportation issues and the Island Explorer Bus system at Acadia National Park, Maine.

Rea Brennan, Marc Edwards, and John J. Daigle

Management Decision-making & Planning for Outdoor Recreation

Integrating resource, social and managerial indicators of quality into carrying capacity decision making.

Peter Newman, Robert Manning, and Bill Valliere

Redefining roles of science in planning and management: Ecology as a planning and management tool.

Greg Mason and Stephen Murphy

Impacts of Wildlife Viewing

Elk viewing in Pennsylvania: An evolving eco-tourism system.

Bruce E. Lord, Charles H. Strauss, and Michael J. Powell

Competing values: A case study of Pennsylvania’s elk herd as a tourism attraction.
Jeffrey A. Walsh and Leonard K. Long

Impacts of wildlife viewing at Dixville Notch Wildlife Viewing Area.

Judith K. Silverberg, Peter J. Pekins, and Robert A. Robertson

Methodology in Outdoor Recreation Research II: Instruments & Methods

Effects of pretesting with the adventure recreation model instrument.

Anderson Young, Lynn Anderson, and Dale Anderson

Modeling nonlinear preferences.

Donald F. Dennis

Personal Relevance, Involvement & Loyalty in Outdoor Recreation

Psychological commitment as a mediator of the relationship between involvement and loyalty.

Joohyun Lee and Alan Graefe

Gender Issues in Outdoor Recreation & Resource Management

Older Chinese women immigrants and their leisure experiences: Before and after emigration to the United States.

Ching-Hua Ho and Jaclyn A. Card
Towards an understanding of gender differences with respect to whitewater rafting preferences.

Duarte B. Morais, Traci Zillifro, and Susanne Dubrouillet

Trails over Land & Water: Issues of Multiple Use & Conflict

Use and user patterns among Michigan licensed Off-Highway Vehicles ownership types.

Joel A. Lynch and Charles M. Nelson

Recreation conflict of riparian landowners with personal watercraft and motorboat use along the New York’s Great Lakes.

Cheng-Ping Wang and Chad P. Dawson

User preferences for social conditions on the St. Croix International Waterway.

Jamie Hannon, John J. Daigle, and Cynthia Stacey

Security along the Appalachian Trail.

James J. Bacon, Robert E. Manning, Alan R. Graefe, Gerard Kyle, Robert D. Lee, Robert C. Burns, Rita Hennessy, and Robert Gray

Trails research: Where do we go from here?

Michael A. Schuett and Patricia Seiser

Attachments to Places & Activities in Outdoor Recreation

Visitor meanings of place: Using computer content analysis to examine visitor meanings at three National Capitol sites.

Wei-Li Jasmine Chen, Chad L. Pierskalla, Theresa L. Goldman, and David L.
Larsen

The importance of visitors’ knowledge of the cultural and natural history of the Adirondacks in influencing sense of place in the High Peaks Region.

Laura Fredrickson

Attachments to places and activities: The relationship of psychological constructs to customer satisfaction attributes.

Thomas D. Wickham and Alan R. Graefe

An exploration of human territoriality in forest recreation.

Harry C. Zinn, Laurlyn K. Harmon, Brijesh Thapa, Deborah L. Kerstetter, and Alan R. Graefe

Community attachment and resource harvesting in rural Denmark.

Rodney R. Zwick and David Solan

Poster Session

The political economy of wilderness designation in Nova Scotia.

Glyn Bissix, Leah Levac, and Peter Horvath

Robert S. Bristow and Steven Riberdy

Park resources as an essential to urban societies.

Kristin Dion, Doug Stefancik, Serena Hawkins, and Robert Bristow

Parks and recreation employment status: Implications from a civil service perspective.

Joel Frater and Arthur Graham

Natural resources interpretation: The role of researchers – A new-old approach.
Mark Gleason

- Mountain bike trail compaction relation to selected physical parameters.

Jeff Hale and Rodney R. Zwick

Management Presentation

- Human preferences for ecological units: Patterns of dispersed campsites within landtype associations on the Chippewa National Forest.

Lisa Whitcomb, Dennis Parker, Bob Carr, Paul Gobster, and Herb Schroeder

Roundtable Discussions

- Creating recreation partnerships on private agricultural and forest land in the urban Northeast: A case study from the Great Meadows of the Connecticut River.

Robert L. Ryan and Juliet Hansel

- Applied research opportunities in developed campgrounds.

Carl P. Wiedemann

- Adapting the Recreation Opportunity Spectrum (ROS) for states lands planning.

Susan Bulmer, Linda Henzel, Ann Mates, Matt Moore, and Thomas A. More

- It’s time to put the C.A.R.T. before the H.O.R.S.E. or Putting Critical, Analytical, and Reflective Thinking before “Handyman” Oriented Recreation Student Education.

David L. Jewell