

ESF Outreach E-news

July 2010

A regular update on ESF's outreach programs, projects, partnerships and people.

Leading Sustainability in Public, Private and Nonprofit Organizations

New for Fall 2010!

Leading Sustainability is a world-class program developed to enable participants to think strategically about sustainability planning and leadership. Face-to-face and webinar meetings will help you:

- Develop and advance effective sustainability strategies
- Evaluate the impacts, costs and benefits of sustainability initiatives
- Organize and mobilize people and financial resources
- Understand and overcome the challenges of related organizational change

Program Leadership: Dr. Rick Smardon, Professor of Environmental Studies, SUNY-ESF, in collaboration with O'Brien and Gere Engineers, Inc., and the Syracuse Center of Excellence in Environmental and Energy Systems
