ESF Outreach and Brandon Murphy Receive TACNY Recognition

On March 24th, 2014, the Technology Alliance of Central New York (TACNY) will host their 15th Celebration of Technology Awards Banquet at the Holiday Inn, Liverpool. The SUNY-ESF Outreach office and Outreach Program Coordinator, Brandon Murphy, will receive the Science and Technology Outreach Award. This award celebrates an organization and an individual in Central New York who have increased interest and engagement, and expanded opportunities to science or technology.

The SUNY-ESF Outreach office will be honored with the Science and Technology Outreach (Organization) Award. ESF’s Outreach activities support environmental, educational, social, economic, and scientific development in ways that advance both the public good and the College’s mission.

Brandon Murphy will receive the Science and Technology Outreach (Individual) Award. Brandon coordinates the SUNY/New York Academy of Sciences-funded STEM Mentor Program: Service Research in Urban Schools. He also serves as the Technology Coordinator for the U.S. Department of Labor, Employment and Training Administration H-1B Technical Skills Training Grant, Enhancing American Jobs and Global Competitiveness: A Collaborative Initiative in Sustainable Materials and Manufacturing.

The Technology Alliance of Central New York (TACNY) is a not-for-profit organization that was founded in Syracuse in 1903. TACNY facilitates community awareness, appreciation, and education of technology; and collaborates with like-minded organizations across Central New York. TACNY focuses on supporting the effort to ensure that Central New York has a continuing workforce of competent technologists. They foster various programs aimed at assisting students and teachers, and provide support to area technology programs, including the Milton J. Rubinstein Museum of Science and Technology.

TACNY’s Celebration of Technology award winners include:

- TECHNOLOGIST OF THE YEAR: Dr. Misty Blowers
