

SYRACUSE PULP AND PAPER FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP
Masters of Professional Studies
Department of Paper and Bioprocess Engineering
SPRING 2015

The Syracuse Pulp and Paper Foundation, Inc. (SPPF) offers scholarships to graduate students enrolled in the MPS program (Paper and Bioprocess Engineering) in the Department of Paper and Bioprocess Engineering at SUNY College of Environmental Science and Forestry. The Paper Science and Engineering Option is eligible for the scholarship. SPPF scholarships are available by application based on academic merit, and awards vary based on cumulative grade point average (GPA). Scholarships are renewed each semester subject to Scholarship Committee approval.

The following eligibility requirements and restrictions are currently in effect for students entering the program after Spring 2015:

1. Enrollment in the appropriate area of study of the MPS degree program in the Department of Paper and Bioprocess Engineering at SUNY College of Environmental Science and Forestry and satisfactory progress toward an MPS degree as defined by the Department of Paper and Bioprocess Engineering in consultation with the SPPF Scholarship Committee and SPPF Board of Directors.
2. Scholarships are available to US citizens and permanent residents. Others may be considered at the discretion of the Foundation depending on availability of funds. The SUNY-ESF Director of Business Affairs determines immigration status.
3. The Award Schedule is based on Grade Point Average (GPA) as follows for students enrolling in Fall 2009 and after:

PER SEMESTER AWARD - current

GPA	NYS Residents	Out-of-state students
3.500 – 4.000	$3200	$3950
3.250 – 3.499	$2350	$3100
3.000 – 3.249	$1730	$2480

4. For students just entering the program, the scholarship for the first semester only are awarded based on their undergraduate GPA requirements according to the table above.
5. For students enrolled less than full time (12 graduate credit hours), the above rules apply on a prorated basis.

Please note that the scholarship program may be changed per the recommendation of the Foundation's Scholarship Committee and the approval of the SPPF Board of Directors. Awards may vary from semester to semester according to available resources.
