JUDICIAL REVIEW FORM FOR STUDY ABROAD

The State University of New York requires a judicial review of all applicants for its study abroad programs. It is necessary for us to be informed of any judicial record that exists for any participant. The existence of judicial records at the participant's home university does not necessarily mean denial of admission to a program; however, the information must be reviewed by the Study Abroad Office on the campus responsible for the program in order for a determination to be made. Each applicant, regardless of home campus, is required to provide this authorization even if there is no judicial record. Students must also inform their home campus Study Abroad Office about their intention to study abroad.

Instructions for the Student: Please complete Section I of this form and then take the form to the Judicial Officer on your home campus. Be sure to fill in your name at the top of page 2.

Instructions for the office of the Dean of Students: The student named on this form has authorized release of his/her judicial record to the Office of International Education and Programs office. Please complete the second section of this form and then return both pages of this to us directly by mail or fax or as a PDF scan via email to the address/fax/email at the end of this form. A prompt response is appreciated.

Students who have previously been convicted of a felony are advised that their prior criminal history may impede their ability to complete the requirements of certain academic programs and/or to meet licensure requirements from certain professions. Students who have concerns about such matters are advised to contact the dean's office of their intended academic program.
