

State University of New York College of Environmental Science and Forestry

Dear SUNY ESF Student:

You have reported on the FAFSA that you are an independent student based on one or more of the following reasons:

- At any time since you turned age 13, both your parents were deceased, you were in foster care or were a dependent or ward of the court.
- As determined by a court in your state of legal residence, you are or were an emancipated minor.
- Someone other than your parent or stepparent has legal guardianship of you, as determined by a court in your state of legal residence.
- At any time on or after July 1, 2019, your high school or school district homeless liaison determined that you were an unaccompanied youth who was homeless or were self-supporting and at risk of being homeless.
- At any time on or after July 1, 2019, the director of an emergency shelter or transitional housing program funded by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development determined that you were an unaccompanied youth who was homeless or were self-supporting and at risk of being homeless.
- At any time on or after July 1, 2019, the director of a runaway or homeless youth basic center or transitional living program determined that you were an unaccompanied youth who was homeless or were self-supporting and at risk of being homeless.

The correct values for these questions must be confirmed and validated with supporting documentation. Your prompt attention is essential and appreciated - no federal aid will be disbursed or appear on your billing statement until this process is completed. Once the correct information has been confirmed, the aid package will be reviewed to determine if any changes are required.

What documents are needed for this validation? Students should complete and submit the 2020-2021 Independent Validation Worksheet included with this letter. Please be sure to read all instructions carefully and provide all required “wet” signatures and supporting documentation.

How should documentation be submitted? All documentation should be submitted to:
